

A Meditation for the New Year

—Romans 12:1-2

Originally Preached at Pleasantville Presbyterian Church on December 31, 2017

“I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.”

—Romans 12:1-2

How does your experience of this most recent Christmas live on in your spirit?

How do you want to use the 24 hours ahead of you-recognizing it is a gift from God?

At the end of 2018 -what will matter most to you? What will you regret not doing?
