

“Torn Apart” — Mark 1:4-11

Originally Preached at Pleasantville Presbyterian Church on January 7, 2018

“And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.’” --Mark 1:11

Does it seem strange to you that Jesus chose to be baptized? Why do you think he did it?

Have you had an experience of feeling as though you understood God’s love for you in a new way? Did it change anything for you?

What are the truths you don’t want to forget—no matter how overwhelming the facts of your life might be in any one moment?
